Halloween-Pam Lacey thanked those that participated.

Mexican Fiesta – Cathy Richmond reported that the event went well! She believes we need another fundraising event.

Thanksgiving - Bev McIntosh reported there were currently five (5) tables, some with empty chairs. There it still time to sign up.

Christmas dinner - Lenore Combs volunteered to chair the dinner.

Small trips - Sue Swidryk - Next one is to the Chocolate Factory. Both trips are currently filled but you can still sign up should someone need to drop out or if another can be filled.

Bake and Craft sale - Dec 3, 2021 8 am to 12pm. Terry DeBackere will be chairperson for this event.

OLD BUSINESS

Nominating Committee for Office Elections is needed. Vice President, Secretary and Treasure need to be filled. Judy Stone volunteered. Two additional members are needed.

NEW BUSINESS

We need a volunteer for kitchen buyer. This person keeps supplies available for our events. Dee Novak volunteered.

Susanne Ulrich presented us with information on the new Garden Clubs activities. They have had their first meeting. One of their first projects has been to place new pots in the Pool area. Pots and potting soil came to approximately $50. It was moved and seconded that the Women's Club give $50 to the Garden Club to cover the cost of the new pots.

Mary Hendrickson suggested an activity to be held in February to replace Casino night. A Mardi Gras theme evening was suggested. She will be chairperson.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Dee Novak provided information about the Christmas Lights Tour to Hidalgo. Cost $30. Only 53 people can go, so sign up soon.

Heidi Dill reported that the Craft Group will start in January and that more news would be coming.

Winner of the gift for wearing her name tag was Mecca Henry.

Mecca Henry made the motion that the meeting adjourn. Dee Novak seconded the motion.
