

Women's Club meeting December 19th, 2025

The meeting was called to order at 9:00 a.m, with 51 woman present.

Roll call taken.

Audrie Andreatos said the opening prayer.

New member, Jeanne Boardman was welcomed.

President Pam Davis recognized, and asked all woman who have been on a committee of a Women's Club event to stand. She said these committee helpers hard work, sometimes goes unnoticed. Gift bags were given for their service.

Committee reports:

Vice President Pam Lacey did not have a report. However she did share a Christmas joke.

Lisa Perrier, Secretary read the previous meeting minutes. Motion made/seconded to accept the minutes as read.

Marlene Parker, Treasurer read the treasurers report. The November bank reconciliation began with a bank balance of $23,696.25. The deposits for two events, were Octoberfest of $1,673.00, with a profit of $826.12. The Thanksgiving deposit for $510.00, profit of $245.16. The end of the month balance was $24,589.86 with a profit of $1,071.86. To date the bake sale and craft fair made $1,428.75 with a profit of $1,408.76 profit. So, we have since October to date, a bank balance of $25,997.93. Motion made/seconded to accept the treasures report as read.

Mary Hull, Activity Director said the Thanksgiving was a very fun event and thanked all who helped her. 93 people attended. She thanked the bake sale/craft chairs Nancy Sterling and Nancy Lyne for a phenomenal event. Mary thanked Pam Davis for the food and fun at the tree decorating event. Mary would like to mention an “unsung” hero volunteer within the Women’s Club. Women who are behind the scene. Always showing up with a smile and no complaints. Last month it was Lexa Bentley. This month hero is Pat L’Heureux.

Upcoming events:

Christmas-December 25th. Jane Meehan and Brenda Bont co-chairs. Doors open at 12:30, dinner served at 1:00. Ham will be served. This is pot luck, so sign up in the library to bring a side dish to share. There will be fun and games after dinner. Deadline is Monday, December 22. The cost is $6.00 per person.

Caroling-December 19th. Patricia Lay discussed this. The event starts at 4:00 at Share Nelson’s house. They will be singing at 10 houses.

New Years Eve-December 31st - Patricia Lay. The cost is $5.00 per person. BYOB. Event starts at 8:00 p.m until 12:00 a.m.

New Homeowners party- Saturday January 17th 2026. Lisa Perrier and Jill Heinerikson co-chairs. The cost will be $10.00. More details to follow.

Pop-up lunch-January 5th, 2026. There will be a board/residence meeting and meet the new SEPO board candidates. The Women’s Club will serve chicken salad sandwiches and chips before the meeting. Lemonade and tea will also be available as well as popcorn. The cost will be $5.00 per person. We will also sell Fat Boy ice cream sandwiches for $2.00. We will be serving from 12:00 to 1:00 p.m.

Murder Mystery-Sunday February 22nd, 2026. Mary Hull went over the details of this event. It will a “speak easy” theme. She will need 24 women and men to be characters. There will be a sign up in the library for this event. The time will be from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Health Fair-January 30th.

Taste of Home-January 31st. Details to follow.

Committee reports:

Liz Dietrick-Storage manager. Pat is working to fix up our back shed.

Cyndi Skidmore-Newsletter. Thanked everyone for their patience while the transition is going on.

Reva Allen-Librarian. No report.

Vickie Jones-Kitchen manager. Hopefully everyone likes the new coffee cups. Also, if you need something for an event, please write on the white marker board.

Karen Baase-Memorial Committee. No report.

Historian-No chairperson. Pam Lacey suggested opening this up to any men in the community who might be interested in doing this. Pam made a motion to allow this. Motion made/seconded. All in favor. Please let Pam know if you know if anyone is interested.

New business:

Pam Davis spoke on the Women's Club storage shed issue. She spoke with Lassie who had a shed donated to her by SEPO for her props. Lassie has agreed to share the shed for Women's Club Christmas decorations. Thanks Lassie. There was a repair bill for $91.43 for the repair of the door on the other Women's club shed. Pam spoke with SEPO President, Randy Davis about the bill, Randy agreed to waive this bill if our old shed could be used to store chemicals used for the golf course. With that, Pam made a motion to donate our dilapidated shed to the SEPO golf course. Motion made/accepted. All in favor.

The election committee-Judy Stone, Jill Ventrello and Liz Dietrick are members. Judy announced the new candidates. Cindy Mead for President. Jill Heinerikson for Vice President. Patricia Ayala for Secretary, and Reva Allen for Treasurer.

Open Forum:

Mary Hull-Jefferson Elementary School. She went over all the wonderful details of this, and how happy the children were. This is likely the only presents that they would receive this Christmas. She thanked Lassie for additional gifts that she donated. She is excited for next year. She also read a letter from a teacher from the school. Not only did we touch the hearts of the children, but the teachers as well. Thanks to all who donated monetarily or helped putting the gifts together.

Pam Davis talked regarding Lassie's shed needing a once over. Jill Heinerikson said Directors Pat's estimates of the repair is about $500.00 or less to repair. Motion made/seconded to donate for the cost of the repair. Accepted and all in favor.

Beth Parish spoke on the election committee. She sent an email to the community to inquire where to send your ballot. She forgot to include a deadline for this, which is Tuesday, December 23rd. Patricia Lay added that check your information on the SEPO page for correct phone and email.

Cathy Chajec spoke on the wood shop spaghetti dinner which is January 20th. Sign up will be in the wood shop for anyone who would like to volunteer to help. Serve, cook, clean up, sell tickets etc. Cost will be $12.00 per person. They will be serving from 4:00 to 6:00.. They appreciate the support. A list will come out as to who will be selling tickets. Limited to 200 people.

Nancy Lyne also shared a Christmas joke. She also thanked the community for donations for the silent auction. She also thanked the community for the donations for the raffle. Best ever! She also mentioned that they may have a silent auction on some of the wood workers crafts.

Lassie asked if there is any plans on spending the Women's Club money. Pam said they have items on the table. However, she will be turning over to the new board.

Ugly sweater contest-3rd place-Heidi Dill. 2nd-Jill Ventrello. 1st-Brenda Bont and Janee Bledsoe.

Door prizes were given.

Pam made a motion to dismiss. Motioned made/seconded. All in favor. Meeting adjourned at 9:57 a.m.

Respectfully,

Lisa Perrier-Secretary