Dear NW-CERT Volunteers and Friends,

Reference: NEXTDOOR – a social networking service

Lately several mailings have gone out to many Sunshine residents via USPS endorsing NEXTDOOR from a resident (namely - Lenore, Pat Harvey and Jerry Bressler so far). We have not given any endorsement. If you wish to follow up on it and join – it's your call.

I emailed them and said I was unhappy with them using my name to solicit without my permission. They called me and we had a conversation. We're done!. For your sake, check them out on the web.

There are many postings from NEXTDOOR – email, text, phone etc.. This is like Facebook and Twitter on steroids. Please be careful how you proceed. Bad Guys luv this free advertisement.

“We are for neighbors” it says - sounds good BUT.....the typical platform includes neighbors reporting on news and events in their “neighborhood” – members asking each other for local service providers, posting lost dog etc. Please do your own research. Looks like to me neighbors and others are getting more than they bargained for. Very little relates to crime prevention – which years ago was the premise.

My money is on our solid and valued partnership we have with Police, Fire and EMS. And let's not forget our hard working Neighborhood Watch volunteers whose faithful, loyal time and talent contribute to Sunshine's safety and security.
